IN SUMMARY

Anything on the property lines or between the property lines, either above or below ground of the tenant's lot, is the responsibility of the tenant, including water and sewer lines from the main line to the house. It is not uncommon for these to run outside the property lines. Also, the mailbox and post are the responsibility of the tenant.

I have read and fully understand the Rules and Regulations and agree to all. I understand that when there is a question regarding the above rules, I will contact the PSMHC representative.
